.....on Tap!

A priest, a minister and a rabbi walk into a bar . . . That's the beginning of a thousand jokes. A teacher, a stay-at-home mom, an IT professional, a carpenter, a social worker, all members of CRUCC, walk into a bar . . . That may be the beginning of a lot of provocative and enlightening conversations about faith. God on Tap is the name of a new opportunity for members and friends of CRUCC to gather to come to know each other and to wrestle with some of life's great (and small) questions.

- Many people say, "I am spiritual, but not religious." What is the difference? Does it matter?
- Should Christians have a perspective on immigration? What would such a perspective be based on? Is there room for a diversity of views on something like this? What might other traditions or religions have to say?
- What will the church of the future look like? What will CRUCC look like?
- If your entire life was a movie, what title would best fit? Why?
